BARRINGTON DINING TABLE, ROUND

Barrington Dining Table
The Barrington Dining Table's beautifully paneled three-point base is stylish and timeless. Its reeded foundation introduces subtle texture and architectural rhythm, grounding the composition while maintaining a refined, modern presence. Designed for versatility, Barrington pairs its sculptural base with round tops available in either a beveled or straight edge profile—allowing the silhouette to lean more tailored or more crisp and contemporary.

The piece invites tonal harmony or expressive contrast, with finishes that are eminently mix-and-matchable for designers seeking a layered, personalized result. Elegant in proportion and adaptable in expression, Barrington is crafted to anchor dining spaces with quiet confidence and European appeal.
