BETWEEN WORLDS

Between Worlds

A study in quiet tension and subtle rhythm, Between Worlds invites a slower gaze. Built through layers of plaster and pigment, the surface carries a tactile depth—softly dimensional, almost atmospheric—where form emerges and recedes in delicate balance.

A grid of hand-rendered circular marks drifts across the canvas, suspended between structure and spontaneity. Rendered in pale blue against a warm, neutral ground, these repeated gestures feel both meditative and coded—like fragments of language, or echoes of something just beyond reach. Mixed media plaster on canvas. Beautifully Framed In a Silver Canvas Floater Frame

Framed size: 31.5" x 41.5"
