BLUE POEM

Original Mixed Media on Canvas

Blue Poem is an original mixed-media work by Atlanta artist Linwood, where color, texture, and quiet symbolism come together in a composition that feels both architectural and deeply lyrical. Rather than telling a literal story, the painting unfolds like a poem—its meaning revealed through layered marks, subtle gestures, and thoughtful restraint.

As with many of Linwood's originals, the recurring bateau motif subtly references life's journey, woven naturally into a landscape of expressive mark-making and intuitive composition. Every scrape, drip, and line reflects the artist's process, creating a work that continually reveals new details over time.
