

DELIVER ME

Deliver Me

Mixed Media on Canvas

Deliver Me unfolds as a visual plea—layered, searching, and deeply human. A structured ground of muted greens, warm neutrals, and soft blush tones forms the foundation, while bold, looping white lines move across the surface with urgency and intention. These sweeping gestures encircle and traverse the composition, suggesting motion, containment, and release all at once.

Linwood's signature language is evident throughout: layered texture, symbolic restraint, and the balance between control and spontaneity. Expressive yet contemplative, Deliver Me brings both energy and introspection to an interior—an artwork that invites reflection, interpretation, and connection.
