DJE -ART TANK PINE

The DJE Art Tank Low Cabinet is a functional art piece defined by subtle wood textures and a slim metal trim that frames each original art panel. Every door front features one-of-a-kind DJE artwork — an expressive study of life's journeys and relationships, conveyed through layered shapes, patterns, color, and texture that capture emotion and moment.

Inset doors preserve a clean architectural line, set against a custom blue exterior and fitted with discreet push-close hardware for a seamless façade. Bench-made and hand-crafted in pine in the USA, each cabinet stands as a unique intersection of craftsmanship, narrative, and design presence.
