

FRAGMENTS OF BELONGING

Fragments of Belonging— DJE Original

Bold and luminous, Fragments of Belonging draws inspiration from the intricate beauty of polished gemstones and the quiet complexity found within nature's layers. Set against a dramatic black ground, an ordered arrangement of organic forms glows with rich tones of amber, coral, gold, blush, and turquoise, each one radiating like a miniature geode revealed in cross-section.

Delicate crimson accents punctuate the composition, adding moments of quiet intensity while reinforcing the rhythm of the piece. Graphic yet organic, color balances precision with spontaneity, creating a work that feels both contemporary and timeless.

Framed to enhance its striking presence, Fragments of Belonging is equally at home in modern interiors, curated collections, and gallery-inspired spaces.

A captivating original—vibrant, rhythmic, and inspired by the hidden beauty of nature's most treasured forms.
