IF I COULD FALL

If I Could Fall
Mixed Media on Canvas

If I Could Fall reads like a visual confession—layered, imperfect, and emotionally charged. Earthy greens, muted blush, soft stone, and charcoal black are built up in translucent veils, creating a surface that feels excavated rather than painted. Looped, hand-drawn forms move across the composition like thought patterns or unspoken sentences. As always - understated bateau symbolism suggesting the journey.

Framed size:  40" x 30"
