

JUST LIKE BEFORE

Just Like Before

Just Like Before explores the quiet pull of memory—how moments repeat, shift, and return with subtle variation. A layered field of warm neutrals, soft blush, ochre, and deep blue creates a textured ground where structure and spontaneity coexist.

Gridded forms and sketched outlines move across the canvas like fragments of past frameworks, while gestural marks and overpainted passages soften their rigidity. The composition feels both constructed and undone—an evolving surface where traces of what once was remain visible beneath what has been reworked.

At its center, the handwritten phrase—just like before—anchors the piece, suggesting familiarity without exact repetition. Linwood's signature language is present throughout: calligraphic line, layered texture, and symbolic restraint that allows meaning to unfold over time.
