KRISTOF CONSOLE TABLE

South + English is the master of what we call combination pieces, which thoughtfully and unexpectedly mix materials. Enter Kristof, an open-form console table with intriguing lucite details on the side panels. The mechanics of the wood/acrylic pairing are a bit tricky, but there's no stopping English once an idea takes hold. Kristof is solid and transparent, simple and elegant. Shown in Dove Wing Grey, one of many finishes available. Bench-Made in USA.

You can create, it won't add to your wait – customizations are welcomed and will not alter our speedy 4-6 week lead time.
