MAYBE CANDLE

Maybe.

Some scents demand a decision — floral or woodsy, crisp or powdery, love or leave. But Maybe resists all boundaries. It's the signature scent of South + English, where opposites attract and harmony reigns.

Breathe deeply and linger in its quiet mystery — the green brightness of purple basil, the earthy depth of smoked fig, the warm, sensual whisper of amber incense. Masculine and feminine, familiar yet elusive, Maybe feels like a memory you can't quite place.

Hand-poured into an elegant 12-ounce vessel with a double wick, it glows softly — not just a candle, but an atmosphere, a state of mind.
