

MAYBE PUZZLED

“Maybe Puzzled” is an abstract meditation on patience, intention, and the quiet resolve found in creative process. Linwood’s brushwork is deliberate yet fluid—each stroke layered and overpainted to build a rich topography of texture and depth atop an actual puzzle substrate. Vivid accents ignite against a soft robin’s-egg-blue mat, all encased in a wide, sculptural gold frame that adds a sense of gallery-level presence.

A study in contrast and contemplation, Maybe Puzzled invites viewers to linger, discover, and decode its quiet complexity.

Beautifully Shadowbox framed in Gold: 25 1/2" x 32
