ROSEMOOR LOUNGE TABLE

Rosemoor Lounge Table
The Rosemoor Lounge Table brings refined material contrast to relaxed seating environments. Designed at a comfortable 26-inch chat height, it is perfectly scaled for conversational living spaces, lounge settings, and intimate hospitality interiors.

Its striking pedestal base features a faceted metal drum layered with vertical architectural fins, creating a dynamic interplay of light, shadow, and texture. The sculptural foundation is balanced by a clean, tailored top available in bespoke wood finishes, allowing designers to create tonal harmony or expressive contrast within the space.
