RUNNING BACK TO YOU

Running Back to You

Original Mixed Media Artwork by Linwood

In Running Back to You, Linwood captures a quiet moment of vulnerability and connection through the graceful silhouette of a horse. With its head gently lowered, the figure conveys a sense of tenderness, trust, and the instinctive pull toward something familiar.

A sophisticated palette of muted blues, soft sage, ivory, and charcoal creates an atmospheric backdrop, while delicate hand-drawn botanical details in dusty red introduce warmth and organic movement. Linwood's signature layering of expressive charcoal sketches, handwritten phrases, collaged elements, and textured brushwork invites the viewer to discover something new with every glance.
