

TO MY LAST BREATH

To My Last Breath

Bold in scale yet deeply introspective, To My Last Breath explores the tension between division and unity through a singular, commanding form. A monumental circular composition—split with a deliberate, imperfect line—anchors the piece, evoking themes of duality, balance, and the fragile line between contrast and cohesion. Rendered in layered plaster, the surface carries a quiet, tactile weight. Subtle variations of white, stone, and soft blush create depth within restraint,
