WHERE DREAMS LINGER

Invisible Threads — DJE Original

Rhythmic and reflective, One Breath explores repetition as a language of connection. Vertical chains of looping, figure-like forms rise and fall across the surface, each one slightly varied—never identical, yet clearly related. The composition reads like a quiet conversation, where forms mirror, respond, and evolve in tandem.

Built through layered plaster, the surface carries a tactile presence that softens the geometry, allowing each raised line to feel both intentional and organic. A muted palette of warm ivory, stone, and softened blue-grey creates a calm, atmospheric field, while the repeated motifs introduce a gentle cadence that draws the eye upward and across.
