

Many interior designers and collectors feel an instant connection with a Linwood original—when size, palette, and composition align, it’s magic. When they don’t, Linwood gladly accepts custom commissions. The process is collaborative and tailored to your brief: scale, color story, mood, and placement.

To begin a commission, contact the gallery manager at brandy@southandenglish.com

We’ll guide you through timelines, pricing, and approvals to bring your vision to life.
